The Gibraltar Study Circle

The Gibraltar Study Circle was founded in 1975 by W (Wally) Jackson. We bring together philatelists throughout the world who are interested in Gibraltar stamps and postal history. So why not join us? Our many special interests include the ‘Gibraltar Period’ of Morocco Agencies up to 1906, whilst the British Post Office there was under the control of the Gibraltar Post Office.

A quarterly newsletter, The Rock, is distributed to members. It contains articles, question and answer sections and studies on all aspects. In addition, we publish study papers and books on specialised topics.

There are two UK weekend residential meetings each year, in the Spring and the Autumn. One is held in the north, the other in the south. Auctions take place at both and our annual competitions are held at one. Every January there is a Saturday meeting in London; and there are meetings at major philatelic events. From time to time visits to Gibraltar are arranged.

Library books can be borrowed for the cost of the return postage.

There is a circulating exchange packet for cheaper items from 5p to £50, with usually six packets circulating at any one time.

Current UK subscriptions are £14 pa. Overseas members pay £16 pa. Both include hard copies of The Rock. Electronic membership is available for £10 pa (with The Rock by email in pdf format).

- x1191  1848 handcarried envelope addressed to "Richard Williams/Hope Place/Falkland Islands" and endorsed "Forward by J.C. Rennie Esq.," with enclosed letter from William Lafone dated "Montevideo/8th July 1848" introducing John Rennie to Williams, conveying general greetings and the message "Don Juan requests you will send up the "Negro Jose" by the first opportunity offering for this Port". The envelope address ink a little faded but a very rare and early incoming item, newly recorded. Photo.

The Lafone family had a crucial influence on the development of the Falklands during this period and in November 1846 Richard Williams, appointed by Samuel Lafone to manage his cattle and other interests but regarded by many as an unnecessarily troublesome character, had arrived on the islands. Hope Place was the centre of the Lafone cattle enterprise and Uruguayan gauchos had been brought in to produce a regular supply of fresh meat for visiting ships and settlers by controlling and killing local wild cattle. The Lafones, originally Baptists from Liverpool, had moved their family interests toward Montevideo after the 'scandal' of Samuel's marriage to a Catholic lady from the high society of Buenos Aires. Half-brother William worked alongside Samuel and Don Juan Quevedo, Samuel's brother-in-law, had previously been despatched to negotiate with Governor Moody, with whom Williams had an uneasy relationship. John C. Rennie, subject of this letter of introduction, arrived in Stanley on June 18th on board H.M.S. "Champion" and was, it may be assumed, a relative of the new Governor of the islands, George Rennie, who had arrived in June. It seems likely that the Lafones were hopeful that Williams might form an improved working relationship with the incoming Governor, but this did not result.

- x1192 ☒ 1848, handcarried entire addressed to “Capt. Lynch/Chilian Man of War Brig/Condor” from M. White at “Stanley 25th Sept 1848”. The letter “will be handed you by Mr. Williams, who is Mr. Lafone’s principal here” who, it is advised, will be “glad to treat with you for a cargo of spars, in exchange for his cattle, as pr. My statement to you, and H.E. Governor Mardonez, when at Port Famine”. Photo.

Captain Patricio Lynch (1825-1886) served in both the British and Chilean Navies and was later one of the principal figures of the later stages of the War of the Pacific. In this year of 1848 the now abandoned colony of Port Famine (Puerto del Hambre) on the northern edge of the Strait of Magellan was deemed unsuitable for permanent settlement by the Military Governor, José de los Santos Mardones and was moved approximately 60km. north to Punta Arenas. In the National Archives in Port Stanley there is mention of a Captain White of the schooner “Ariel” that had come in from Patagonia at this time and was bound for Santa Cruz, who may be the sender of the letter. This newly recorded item is now THE SECOND EARLIEST SURVIVING INTERNAL LETTER SENT WITHIN THE ISLANDS.

William Moore had arrived in Port Louis in March 1845 from Dublin to fill the post of stipendiary magistrate and had eventually been joined by his wife, Elizabeth, in 1848. Unfortunately both Governors Moody and Rennie had found his conduct highly unsatisfactory and in April 1849 he was suspended from office and returned to London. Moore had mortgaged his properties for the sum of £400 and it would appear that furnishings were included in the subsequent sale of his assets.

"I spoke to several people who had visited the Falkland Islands, and do hope that some of them would have sent subscriptions. I have been there myself; and am just publishing a life of John Davis who was the real discoverer of the Islands, which ought to be called Davis - not Falkland. I enclose my mite towards so good an object as that of building a church on those desolate shores." Photo.

Sir Clements Robert Markham (1830-1916), geographer, explorer and writer, had been Secretary of the Royal Geographical Society until the previous year when he had resigned, believing the Society to be wrong in favouring education over exploration. In 1893, however, he accepted the presidency of the Society and used his position to actively promote the exploration of the Antarctic continent through a series of landmark expeditions, particularly the National Antarctic Expedition of 1901-04, launching the career of Capt. Robert Scott. The importance of his influence and extent of his achievements are difficult to overstate. £100-£120

Specialised Stamp Catalogue of THE FALKLAND ISLANDS AND DEPENDENCIES

Sixth Edition

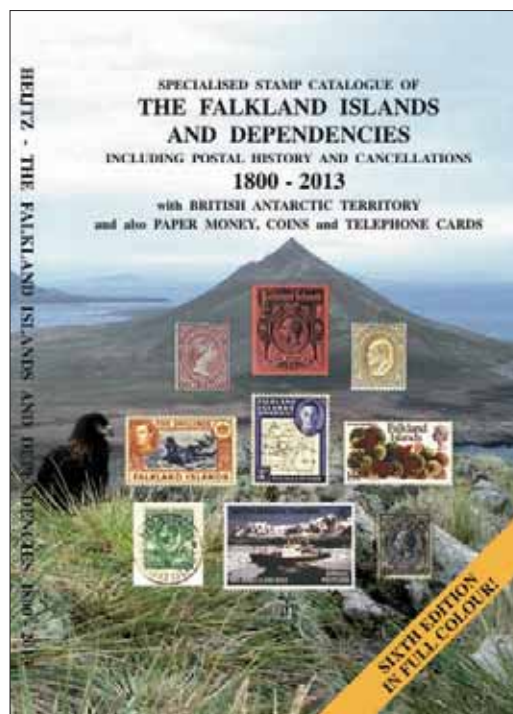

by Stefan Falkland Heijtz

This outstanding, totally new, full-colour edition, also incorporating British Antarctic Territory, covers postal history and cancellations from 1800 to 2013, as well as paper money, coins and telephone cards. It is an indispensable aid to every collector of Falkland Islands stamps.

Every price has been reviewed and many have been changed. A great deal of new information and data have been added. Besides the overall updating of the catalogue, the following extensions have been made. Not only has virtually every recorded variety now been included, but all of them are illustrated, with enlarged details. Many sections have been entirely rewritten, including the FID 1946 and 1948 Maps issues, which are covered in full detail. The other major changes are in the Miscellaneous chapter, which deals with every aspect of Falkland Islands philately not covered elsewhere in the catalogue. This chapter has grown from 50 to 90 pages and nearly every section in it has been rewritten and expanded. There are ten entirely new sections as well including Avis de Réception (Return Receipts), Consular Handstamps, Crash & Damaged-in-Transit Mail, OHMS Mail, Operation Tabarin 1944–45, Post Office Notices, Gazettes & Shipping Time Tables, Postage Due Mail, Postal Forms & Receipts, and QSL-Cards.

You will find information about and prices (based on market values and auction realisations) for:

- 1 All issued stamps of the Falkland Islands, the Dependencies, South Georgia and British Antarctic Territory, including prices for mint, used and on cover, with illustrations (in colour) of almost all stamps (for QEII normally one stamp per set).
- 2 All varieties including watermark varieties, printing errors, flaws etc with many illustrations, essays, proofs, printer's samples etc.
- 3 Postal Stationery from Queen Victoria to the latest issues including essays, proofs and varieties, with colour illustrations of every item.
- 4 All postmarks and cancellations used in the Falkland Islands, the Dependencies, South Georgia and British Antarctic Territory, with prices for single stamps and covers and full size colour illustrations.

- 5 The Miscellaneous chapter contains every other possible aspect of Falkland Islands philately and consists of no less than 50 sections, including a detailed index!
- 6 Non-philatelic collectables: Paper Money, Coins, Telephone Cards and Tokens.

You will also find general information including full listings of postal rates, printing dates and numbers for every stamp up to 1985, numbers destroyed, and general philatelic information on papers, perforations and watermarks.

The catalogue has an unchanged recommended retail price (in Great Britain) of £34 and is also available on CD-ROM in PDF-format (recommended retail price £24 in GB).

It can be bought from Stanley Gibbons, Vera Trinder, Barrington Smith and major retailers in the United Kingdom, from Ian Kimmerly Stamps in Canada, Peter Cranwell in Australia and from Regency-Superior in the USA.

THE FALKLAND ISLANDS PHILATELIC STUDY GROUP (founded 1970)

The Group was founded following a meeting of some 50 collectors gathered together by Malcolm Barton, our Past President. Membership grew rapidly, reaching 125 in 1972, 220 in 1976 and is now at 380 members. The Group is truly international in its membership structure. The objects of the Group are to research into all aspects of philately connected with the Falkland Islands and their former Dependencies, leading to the publication of findings and to foster Falkland Islands philately by all means, including exchanging of information and philatelic material. Research is carried out by individual members, and is collated through a nominated leader for each subject.

A weekend meeting takes place annually in March during which displays are given, auctions and a bourse take place and an Annual General Meeting is held. Regional meetings are also held on a regular basis in various parts of the UK and in other countries, including the USA, Australia, Norway, Sweden and the Falkland Islands. Members, whether beginners or advanced collectors, are encouraged to attend.

The award winning Upland Goose, a quarterly journal, is distributed to all members and to leading philatelic libraries. Members 'Sales and Wants' are published with the journal without charge.

Two auctions of members' material are held each year, one a postal auction and the other live at the weekend gathering. Other material surplus to members' requirements is available through a popular circulating packet, limited because of insurance constraints to subscribers within the UK.

FIPSG is a member of ABPS and the American Philatelic Society.

- 1520 ▲ 1910 (Dec. 31) four page autograph letter (signed “Leicester”) on expedition stationery, written on board the Terra Nova in the “Ross Sea” by Dr. Edward L. Atkinson to his sister. Interesting contents . . . “This is the last letter for a year as we ought to arrive at Cape Crozier in two days from now . . . I am with Evans, Meares and the dogs and as we are the advanced party I am very pleased”, recounting the losses resulting from the recent heavy storm, “we came in for a very heavy blow and very nearly foundered as the water was in the stokehold and the pumps refused to work. We lost two ponies and two dogs and a lot of deck cargo” and the ship’s arrival in the pack ice, “We have had more pack than any previous expedition”. Photo on page 199.
- Dr. Edward Leicester Atkinson (1881–1929), Royal Naval surgeon and parasitologist with the shore party, was later in command of the expedition’s base at Cape Evans and led the party that discovered the bodies of Scott, Bowers and Wilson. Atkinson recovered Scott’s diary with other documents, read the burial service and supervised the building of a cairn. Later, as a result of his position of responsibility and as the only medically qualified officer to see the bodies, Atkinson was involved in controversial aspects of the tragedy relating to the use of the expedition’s dogs and the possible effect of scurvy upon Scott’s party’s chances of survival). He is commemorated by the Atkinson Cliffs on the northern coast of Victoria Land.*
